

FREE Teacher Subject Specialist Training KS3/4

MATHS

At Chipping Campden School STAR Centre

Do you want to improve your Maths subject knowledge?

New course starting November 2018

As part of a DFE initiative, Chipping Campden School is offering non-specialist teachers the opportunity to train to teach Maths. This will allow Maths departments to develop their capacity for teaching GCSE Maths.

This course will be led by Angela Knight, Maths Education Consultant & Teacher.

Online support from Plymouth University.

Professional accreditation.

ALL TRAINING IS FREE to schools and participants.

Returning teachers are also welcome to apply.

Masters Credits can be gained from the course.

A contribution towards cover costs is available.

Course dates – please turn over

The TSST courses are intended to prepare teachers to teach with confidence. The course will look at current research into Mathematics and learning, practice Maths topics, look at resources available to use in teaching and prepare teachers to enjoy the awe and wonder of the Mathematics being taught. Enjoyment, even fun, will be included in the mix.
